

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Mrs. Lucy Ellen Taylor, a native of Barnard, died Oct. 9 in Windsor. She was born in 1832.

A valuable Holstein cow belonging to William Fox of Pittsford choked to death Saturday while eating an apple.

The Orwell free library has collected and shipped last Saturday nearly three tons of old papers.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Warren of Lochmiller, N. Y., observed the 55th anniversary of their marriage Friday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Walter Jenks, in Sudbury.

G. C. Kincaid of Fair Haven, who has charge of the bloodhound Red Panther, owned by J. L. Winchell of that place, is in Eden with the dog, hunting for a man who has been lost for some days.

An Oakland touring car in which E. J. Hyatt and William Graham of Boston were coming from that city to Middlebury was totally destroyed by fire Sunday night between Chester and Bellows Falls. They removed the front tires, which was all that was saved from the car.

With the sale of the stock of goods of John B. Stearns of Rutland to the Cahoe House-Furnishing Co. of the same city Monday, a deal involving $30,000 was put through and one of the oldest retail establishments in Rutland went out of existence. Mr. Stearns, who is a member of the state board of embalmers, will continue his undertaking business.

The Farmers' Mutual Telephone Co., Inc., of Cambridge has filed articles of association with the secretary of state, permission having been granted by the public service commission last week. The company has capital stock of $4,000 divided into 300 shares and there are 29 members of the company, which is to do business in Chittenden, Franklin and Lamoille counties.

In a small country cemetery in Weathersfield Bow is the grave of William Jarvis, consul for Lisbon and acting chargé d'affaires of the United States for Portugal from 1802 to 1811. He was also the first large importer from Spain and distributor through the union of merino sheep, which contributed to lay the foundation of the woolen manufactures of this country. His father, Major Charles Jarvis, who is also buried there, was killed in the Civil war while fighting in the South with one of the Vermont troops.

THREE WERE ARRAIGNED

On Charges Growing Out of Raid on Bennington Factory.

Bennington, Oct. 25.—Walter Viallet, Ralph Clark and Mrs. Fred A. Kendall were arraigned before Municipal Judge E. H. Holden on warrants charging them with complicity in the alleged pilfering at the Bottom & Torrance factory and which came to a climax when Viallet was discovered in the factory building last Thursday night by the watchman, Ford Hurley.

Inasmuch as the maximum penalty for the offenses charged is five years' imprisonment, the court had no jurisdiction. Accordingly, Clark and Mrs. Kendall waived examination and were held for the grand jury. In default of bail Clark was returned to the custody of Sheriff Gifford. Mrs. Kendall was released on bail provided by her father and uncle, George and Herbert Hill.

The case of Viallet was continued to Thursday. Viallet is charged with pilfering at the Bottom & Torrance factory and Mrs. Kendall with receiving stolen goods. State's Attorney Frank C. Archibald appeared for the prosecution, Collins M. Graves for Mrs. Kendall and James K. Batchelder of Arlington for Viallet.

WELL KNOWN DENTIST.

Dr. B. C. Jenney of Bennington Died Tuesday.

Bennington, Oct. 25.—Dr. B. C. Jenney, one of the best known dentists in Vermont, died yesterday at his apartments in the Nichols block on Main street. He had been afflicted during the past 10 years with diabetes, which was the ultimate cause of his death. He had been confined to his rooms for about two weeks.

Burt Cyrus Jenney was born at Leicester, near Brandon, Sept. 19, 1856, the son of E. B. Jenney and Sarah A. Kelsey. Jenney was educated in the public schools of his native town and Brandon and was for a short time a teacher. Following a brief employment in the office of a Brandon dentist, he came to Bennington in 1877 and associated himself with the late Dr. Seranton. He began the practice of dentistry fully 35 years ago at the offices over the store now occupied by the Satter Grocery & Tea Co. and maintained the location up to the time of his death.

April 27, 1887, he married Sarah Frances Dewey, daughter of the late Charles Dewey. She died in March, 1914. The family survivors are three sons and one daughter, Rollin D., who followed the profession of his father and who is now practicing in this village; Kathryn, wife of M. C. Burrington of Bennington; C. Dewey, an employee of the Twin State Gas & Electric Co., and Edward R., a student in the dental school of the University of Pennsylvania. He also leaves a nephew and niece, Irving Jenney of Leicester, and Mrs. John Cantwell of Malone, N. Y.

The funeral will be held from the chapel of the Congregational church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. George S. Mills, the pastor, will officiate and the burial will be in the Park Lawn cemetery.

Dr. Jenney was a member of Bennington lodge of Elks and of Mount Anthony lodge of Masons, and was especially interested in the activities of the former organization.

Worms—A Danger to Children

No gain in a child's health and strength is possible until all worms are removed. Signs of worms are: Deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly with occasional wringings and pains about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, nose heavy and dull, twitching of the eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever. If you see any of these symptoms in your child, don't lose another minute, but get a bottle of Dr. True's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller.

Mrs. Norrat of Houston, Texas, writes: "I would not be without Dr. True's Elixir in my home." No better laxative made for young or old. At all dealers, 25c, 50c and $1. Advice free.

MANY TIES SEVERED.

Judge Slack in Windham County Court Announces Order.

Newfane, Oct. 25.—Judge Leighton P. Slack announced several decisions in divorce cases yesterday in county court. The court term is rapidly approaching, and only minor court matters appear to be standing in the way of an adjournment within a day or two.

The following were the cases decided and announced:

Earl Derry, divorce from Hazel Derry on the ground of desertion.

Harriet B. Lynde, divorce from Charles H. Lynde on the ground of intolerable severity, custody of minor children, Evelyn and Lillian, to petitioner with order to permit visits of the children to the parent who does not have them in custody.

Louis E. Day, divorce from Bertha P. Day on the ground of wilful desertion; custody of one minor child to the petitioner.

Edward E. Ferrin, divorce from Alice Lombard Ferrin on statutory grounds.

Edith E. Baxter, divorce from William P. Baxter for neglect and refusal to support, custody of minor son to the petitioner.

Blanche Brown Wilson of Brattleboro, divorce from Emerson R. Wilson on the ground of wilful desertion; petitioner given right to resume maiden name.

Ethel L. Strawser, divorce from Lewis E. Strawser on the ground of wilful desertion; custody of two minor daughters to the petitioner.

Daisy Phillips English of Brattleboro, divorce from Edward E. English on the ground of intolerable severity; petitioner given right to resume her maiden name.

Arthur J. Blanding, divorce from Kate Blanding on the ground of desertion and the cross libel discontinued; case continued as to permanent custody of minor child, but temporary custody given to E. M. Spencer, grandfather of the child, with the order that the grandfather is to bring the child to Brattleboro every Sunday and permit the child to be in the care of the father from 9:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Emma L. Upham, divorce from Carl F. Upham on the ground of neglect and refusal to provide; petitioner given right to resume maiden name.

Jennie McElhinny McNierny of Brattleboro, divorce from Frank McNierny of New York on the ground of intolerable severity; petitioner given right to resume maiden name and alimony ordered as per order which is not on file.

Real Estate and Personal Property

On account of poor health, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on Thursday, OCTOBER 26 at 9:30 o'clock—sharp, in the forenoon, at my farm in Calais, Vt., known as the old Captain Moore farm, situated one-half mile from Maple Corner, 1 mile from Kent's Corner, and 10 miles from Montpelier, the following:—

MY HOME FARM

consisting of 210 acres of land, 100 acres of level tillage, all in a high state of cultivation. Three pastures that will keep 40 head. From 200 to 250 M. of old growth spruce and hemlock timber, mostly spruce. From 1200 to 1500 nice sugar trees. Two orchards of fine grafted fruit. Extra good 11-room house, very convenient, all in nice shape and well painted. Large basement barn that ties up 34 head. Silo 15x12x25 ft., workshop and toolhouse. Buildings all equipped with improved lightning rods. Nicest of spring water at buildings. Cream taken at door, 1/2 mile to school, store, etc. Very desirable farm and a money maker for someone.

PERSONAL PROPERTY, Consisting of

three of them registered Jerseys, balance grade Jerseys. Cows are young and good size, some new fresh, most of the others before Jan. 1, and a few a little later, nice dairy herd, 1 Jersey bull, 6 Jersey heifers, 2 brood sows, 1 full-blood Berkshire boar, 2 shoats, 6 six-week-old full-blood Berkshire pigs, 1 pair of horses—extra good farm team.

FARM TOOLS AND MACHINERY—

1 two-horse lumber wagon with box body and rack, dump cart, new express wagon with pole, road cart, buckboard, 2 sets traverse sleds, bob sled, engine sled, pleasure sleigh, one 9 h. p. gas engine, circular and drag saw rigs, threshing machine, blower—complete; sulky and machine sicks, cream separator, mowing machine, rake and tedder, potato digger, Ames seeder, manure spreader, land roll, stone boat, horse hoe, set of scales, wheel harrow, spike harrow, spring harrow, cutaway harrow, cultivator, corn planter, 4 plows, hay fork, work harnesses, grindstone, 300 cedar posts, 10 solid cords of wood, milk cans and pails, and other small tools, such as sprinkler, chains, bars, hoes, forks, rakes, shovels, etc.

CROPS—75 tons of No. 1 hay, big lot of straw, 8 acres of ensilage, 200 bushels of oats, 50 bushels of barley, 25 bushels wheat, 100 bushels of potatoes, and 10 bushels of beans.

SUGAR TOOLS—700 tin and galvanized tubs with covers, Chase evaporator, storage tanks and gathering tubs, with some other articles not mentioned. A first-class farm in every respect, and the personal property is up-to-date. A good sale to attend. Terms at time of sale. Lunch at noon.

Stock and Hay

As I am planning to build a new barn and to keep only registered stock, I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on at 1 o'clock sharp in the afternoon, on the premises where I now live in Washington, Vt., known as the Levi Whitcomb farm, on the road leading from Washington to Williamstown, 2 miles from Williamstown, 4 miles from Williams-town and 3 miles from Graniteville, the following:

My Entire Herd of Mostly Grade Holstein Stock

19 HEAD IN ALL, consisting of 7 extra good cows, young and good size, that will freshen this fall and early winter. Most of these cows I have paid big money for, and they are good ones. I will trouble you to find better ones. One pair of fancy 2-year-old Holstein steers—are partly handy; no one owns a better pair; 3 nice 2-year-old grade Holstein heifers to freshen in the winter; 12-year-old and 1 yearling bull and 5 calves; 15 pure-bred Buff Orpington yearling hens and rooster.

Also, 20 to 30 tons of good hay.

I have neighbors and friends who have more stock than they can tie up that will consign of this sale 30 HEAD OF CATTLE, Grade Holsteins and Jerseys—cows that are now fresh and will be this fall and winter; some nice 2-year-old heifers that are to freshen early in winter, and several other head of young stock. This stock is all being sold for no fault, only the lack of room.

Also, 5 HORSES—One, a good work horse that weighs 1,300 lbs.; 1 4-year-old driving mare, a neat one; 1 other good driving horse; 1 3-year-old horse, harness and buggy, and 1 2-year-old colt—a good one; you will find this to be good, clean property, and will be sold as advertised. Those coming from a distance will be furnished lunch and horse feed.

Terms at time of sale.

REAL ESTATE AND MILL PROPERTY

As I have other property that requires my entire attention and to which I am now moving, I have decided to sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on the premises now occupied by me near North Calais, in the town of Woodbury, 1/2 mile from North Calais, on the cross road leading to Hardwick, on at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the following described real estate and sawmill property:

THE FARM

containing about 50 acres, suitably divided into tillage, pasture and woodland; there has been conservatively estimated to be 50,000 ft. of soft wood on the property; cuts 10 to 15 tons of hay; barn 30 x 24 ft.; basement; 6-room house in fair condition; new carriage house, toolhouse and henhouse; running water at house and barn; one-half mile to school; on R. F. D. and telephone lines; lots of white and yellow pine, and rock maple.

THE SAWMILL

is practically new and everything in fine condition; 75-h. p. with No. 2 Chase mill; Lane set works; 24-in. planer, clipping saw, slab saw and full equipment of machinery; has a capacity of 1,000 ft. per hr.; there is in the immediate vicinity of this mill more than 2,000,000 ft. of timber which can be secured, and the land is only about 2 1/2 miles to railroad for shipping.

The farm and mill property will be sold separately if desired.

There will also be sold about 10 tons of nice hay and some other personal property. Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms at time of sale. Remember the date, Oct. 26, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.
